MY MORNING JACKET

Evil Urges

It's probably clear by now that we love these dudes. And this album should make them huge, thanks to songs that range from Prince-style space funk to Who-meets-the-Band classic-rock nirvana. It's the best thing to come out of Kentucky since the Colonel kicked the 12-piece bucket.

YOUNG JEEZY

"Put On"

The South's gnarliest MC returns with a tougher-than-Kevlar single that blends two hip-hop trends we love: Armageddon-orchestra beats and auto-tuned rhymes - plus a surprisingly gangsta-sounding Kanye.

THE PINKER TONES

"Working Bees"

On an endorphin-goosing dance cut, this Barcelona duo sound like a delirious mix of Deee-Lite, Stereo-lab and something Ron Burgundy would play you in his love lair.

THE OFFSPRING

"Hammerhead"

Oh, snap, the Offspring! We almost forgot about those dudes - until they came back strong with a headbanging, ultratropical single. Pretty fly for some old guys.

THE UGLYSUIT

"Chicago"

These Oklahomans chose the worst name since Mudcrutch, but this rainy-day ballad - wistful harmonies, vintage keybs, etc. - shows better taste. Slot this in your "Make Out '08" playlist between the new Death Cab and Flobots.
